PRESS RELEASE

SAN DIMAS HEROES TO DEDICATE COMPLETED MONUMENT

The San Dimas H.E.R.O.E.S. (Helping Establish a Remembrance Of Every Serviceperson) organization will hold its unveiling and dedication of the completed Veterans' Monument on Veterans' Day, Monday, November 11, 2013. The celebration will begin at 5:30 P.M. in Freedom Park (on San Dimas Ave., between Arrow Hwy. and Bonita Ave.).

The dedication ceremonies will include a ribbon cutting, unveiling of over 50 veterans names engraved on the newly constructed north wall, and a symbolic raising of all the flags at the monument. Additionally, a mural, designed by San Dimas High School art teacher Dominic Black and painted by Black and his art students from the high school, will be unveiled at the ceremonies.

Join us for dinner ...

The Carl's Jr. Star Diner will be available so you can purchase your favorite Carl's hamburger and soft drinks. There will also be a beer garden for those of you that would like a nice, cold Bud. All proceeds from diner and beer sales go to the HEROES Monument project.

After the official dedication is over, Country Western singer, Amy Scruggs and her band will perform. Amy and her son Ryan, the lead guitarist of the band, are coming home!! Amy was raised in San Dimas and her son Ryan was born here.
