Dear community members,

My name is Johnny McNerney, and I am the owner of Ruthless Cowboys, an American Made Clothing Company based out of San Dimas, CA. My company and I are partnering with Warrior Brotherhood Veterans Motorcycle Club to gather donations in order to help the victims of the Camp Fire (City of Paradise) & Woolsey Fire.

I am writing to ask for your support with the Brotherhood in Action Fire Relief event on January 5th. We will be working with the Chambers of Commerce from both Woodland Hills and Calabasas on this day, dropping off all donations that we receive. All donations will be disbursed throughout the communities that were affected by the fires. The Chambers of Commerce will be working in partnership with each city to help those in need get back on their feet.

Here are ways you can donate:

Toiletries (toilet paper, toothbrushes, toothpaste, mouthwash, deodorant, disposable razors, shaving cream, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, hand soap, bar soap, etc)

Paper products (i.e. disposable plates, utensils, paper towels, etc)

Cleaning supplies (i.e. disinfectant wipes)

Non-perishable foods and beverages

Toys

Pet food

Gift cards (restaurants, department stores, Visa/MasterCard, etc)

Any donations that can be made would be greatly appreciated, if you have any questions please contact us at any time at 909-921-3027. If you have other community members that you can reach out to for us, we would greatly appreciate it so that we can fill up our giant trailer to take to the event.

Location drop off sites:

Ruthless Cowboys: 100 N. San Dimas Avenue San Dimas ca 91773

Red Robin: 565 W. Arrow Hwy San Dimas ca 91773

Thank you,
Johnny McNerney
